Greetings!

Will Corley, Wendy Hanson and the team from Corley Hanson Associates, wish you a very happy holiday. Let us all take this time to slow down and appreciate all we have in life. Eat, drink, and be merry - - we'll take care of business in 2007!

Ode to You

This is a year that has brought darkness and light
Warm winter winds, words of hope
This is a year we celebrate those who we loved and still died.
And all that remained behind
Where shadows grow so does warm winter winds
We felt such sadness aching through our body.
Water that connects bodies land masses no longer separated
Warm eyes moist drained
Celebrating what is alive
This is a year when we were young we feared would come to pass
And what we celebrate is the life in his eyes
Quiet moments when a son sees his father as if for the first time
It is here we feel so blessed
This is a year we have learned much from so many people we have come to know
We celebrate all that is left to know
All we have left to give
All we have yet to create
Where passion is discovered never lost
We celebrate all those who we have shared laughter linking our minds in ways we could not know
We celebrate our fears and what we don't know
We celebrate people coming together to bring warm winter of hope to each other
Of times where minds moved in rhythm to reach greater heights
Walking towards fears not knowing how or where the winds will rise
We celebrate friends who struggle to say what they mean
We celebrate you who brought us into your world
We celebrate your joy
Each moment of each day
Of hearts that are filled of what cannot be denied
Of moments where our spirit rises beyond all that is shattered
Of lights that shine in winters time.
We celebrate you
